Dear Jane,

Congratulations on your new job as as Acting EPA Administrator!

Yesterday was a great day for many reasons, and learning that you had been tapped to lead the Agency during this exciting time was so encouraging.

We all expected that the Biden-Harris team would make the right decisions for EPA, and this recognition of your skill and experience is a very important and comforting signal.

Although I am no longer there every day, EPA is still very much a part of me and I am rooting for all of you.

Thank you for your continued leadership and commitment to the Agency and its mission. It means a lot.

All the best,

Anna
